About us

All things clean (Pty) Ltd is a cleaning and hygiene company established early in 2024 at Amanzimtoti, Durban. We are a company that understands the importance of the relationship between excellent hygiene and good health. As entrepreneurs within the cleaning industry, the outbreak of the coronavirus was an immense eye opening real life experience that taught us how deadly poor hygiene standards can be to humankind. It has since come to our attention of how imperative good hygiene etiquettes should be kept as an everyday practice and this has therefore led to the establishment of All things clean (Pty) Ltd.

Ever heard jack of all trades and master of all, well that is us. We are currently specialising in a number of different cleaning services ranging from residential to commercial markets. All things clean does also offer other miscellaneous cleaning services such as after event cleaning and mobile car-washing. All things clean (Pty) Ltd is a full professional cleaning company that is registered and certified by the National Contract Cleaners Association of South Africa.
